Community magazines and business directories

Q: What happens if you don't advertise?
A: Nothing!

Link Magazines are produced by people who care about the local community. They encourage local people to use local services helping the community to thrive. There is strong evidence that truly local services are preferred by the majority of the UK population.

Delivered FREE door to door monthly our glossy A5 magazines have a circulation of over 5000 each. The magazines are full colour giving your advert the best look possible.

Because we feature interesting articles, puzzles, editorials and community features our magazines are often kept until the next edition unlike newspapers.

Our prices are low cost compared to larger distribution newspapers. As it's very local, it can be easily monitored for effectiveness. Over the medium to long term, local magazine advertising should form a key part of your local marketing.

Local Link Publishing is a family business, we are totally independent and not a franchise. It's simply run by people who care that local communities thrive. Link magazines have been published since 2005, a firm fixture in the local community.
